If you access or use any services made available to you through the Thryv Marketplace, you agree to the following additional Terms and Conditions as a supplement to your Thryv Platform Services Terms and Conditions. The Thryv® Marketplace is an aggregated offering of applications and services that may be of interest or use to you. Applications not branded Thryv are provided by third-party developers, licensors or distributors (each a "Third-Party Provider"). When you link out from the Thryv Marketplace to a Third-Party Provider site, you agree that your business information will be passed to that Third-Party Provider's site for the purpose of facilitating a transaction with that Third-Party Provider. Terms for Thryv branded applications and add-ons available through the Marketplace can be found here.

You understand and agree that your purchase, download, or use of Third-Party Provider applications is governed by such Third-Party Provider's terms and conditions and privacy policy, as applicable. You agree to abide by such Third-Party Provider's terms and conditions. Additionally, the Marketplace may include the capability for you, at your sole discretion, to integrate a Third-Party Provider application with your Thryv Services Account. If you exercise this integration option, you hereby authorize us to integrate such Third-Party Provider application with your Thryv Services Account to facilitate the sharing of certain Client Content (as defined in the Thryv Platform Services Terms and Conditions) from your Thryv Services Account to your Third-Party Provider account, and the ingestion of Client Content from your Third-Party Provider account to your Thryv Services Account.
